

GA1 (Disarmament and International Security):

Exploring international measures to enhance security and stability in the Sahel region.

Enhancing international cooperation to combat maritime piracy.

Ensuring the secure development of modern technologies to prevent the weaponization of publicly accessible devices such as generative artificial intelligence.

GA2 (Economic and Financial):

Evaluating a global minimum corporate tax and other measures to promote fair taxation.

Assisting LEDCs in the transformation towards a resilient economy.

Exploring effective and equitable financing mechanisms for climate protection and green economic growth.

GA3 (Social and Humanitarian):

Ensuring adequate conditions for employees in the mining sector.

Preventing social and cultural marginalisation caused by poverty.

Ensuring Fair Treatment and Integration of Migrants and Refugees

GA4 (Special Political and Decolonisation):

Addressing political instability and governance challenges, such as corruption, in post-colonial nations.

Addressing the influence of multi-national corporations on the African continent.

Discussing the future of the Palestinian territories and the reconstruction of the Gaza Strip.

Commission on Population and Development:

Promoting equitable access to sustainable development financing.

Assessing the potential for economic growth derived from the Belt and Road Initiative.

Improving access to education in rural areas of LEDCs.

Commission on the Status of Women:

Ensuring equal access for women to the labour market, whilst making sure that work and family life become compatible.

Providing equal access to proper education for women and girls.

Creating safe access to women's shelters in cases of domestic violence and police brutality.

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice:

Combating the influence of drug cartels with special regards to latin america.

Ensuring access to fair criminal justice practices to prevent discrimination and marginalisation within national judicial systems.

Addressing corruption within criminal justice systems to ensure equal access to justice

Environmental Commission:

Creating funds and other measures to assist developing countries in adapting to the consequences of climate change.

Reducing environmental inequality by ensuring equitable access to clean water, air, and land.

Discussing whether and if so, in which ways major corporations can be held accountable for the climate damage they caused.

Human Rights Council:

Improving the humanitarian situation of foreign workers on the Arab peninsula.

Protecting minors from economic exploitation and child labour.

Strengthening Human Rights Safeguards for Civilians in Sudan.

Security Council:

Addressing the increasing tensions between the USA and Cuba.

Discussing the question of Taiwan and ongoing tensions in the South China Sea.

Exploring ways to end the ongoing war between the Russian Federation and Ukraine, that will result in a long-lasting peace in Europe.